MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi-1, the 3rd March 1959

S.O. 544.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 and clause (5) of article 148 of the Constitution, and after consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor General in relation to persons serving in the Indian Audit and Accounts Department, and with reference to rule 4(B) of the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1955, the President hereby makes the following rules, namely—

THE CENTRAL CIVIL SERVICES (RECOGNITION OF SERVICE ASSOCIATIONS) RULES, 1959.

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Central Civil Services (Recognition of Service Associations) Rules, 1959.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) "the Government" means the Central Government;
- (b) "Government servant" means any person to whom the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1955, apply;
- (c) "Service Association" includes a Federation or a Confederation of Service Associations.

3. Service Associations already recognised.—A Service Association which has been recognised by the Government before the commencement of these rules and in respect of which the recognition is subsisting at such commencement, shall be deemed to have been recognised by the Government under these rules and shall continue to be so recognised until the recognition is withdrawn under rule 7.

4. Conditions for recognition of Service Associations.—No Service Association shall be recognised by the Government after the commencement of these rules, unless all the following conditions are satisfied, namely—

- (a) an application for recognition of the Service Association is made with all the information relevant for such recognition;
- (b) the Service Association is formed primarily with the object of promoting the common service interests of its members;
- (c) membership of the Service Association is restricted to a distinct category of Government servants having such common interests, all such Government servants being eligible for membership of the Service Association;
- (d) no person, who is not a Government servant, is connected with the affairs of the Service Association;
- (e) the executive of the Service Association is appointed from amongst the members only; and

- (f) the funds of the Service Association consist exclusively of subscriptions from members and grants, if any, made by the Government and are applied only for the furtherance of the objects of the Service Association.

5. Conditions subject to which recognition is granted.—Every Service Association recognised or deemed to have been recognised under these rules shall comply with the following conditions, namely:—

- (a) the Service Association shall not send any representation or deputation except in connection with a matter which is of common interest to members of the Service Association;
- (b) the Service Association shall not espouse or support the cause of individual Government servants relating to service matters;
- (c) the Service Association shall not maintain any political fund or lend itself to the propagation of the views of any political party or politician;
- (d) all representations by the Service Association shall be submitted through proper channel, and shall, as a normal practice, be addressed to the Secretary or Head of the Department or Office;
- (e) a list of members and office bearers, an up-to-date copy of the rules and an audited statement of accounts of the Service Association shall be furnished to the Government annually through proper channel after the general annual meeting so as to reach the Government before the 1st day of July each year;
- (f) any amendment of a substantial character in the rules of the Service Association shall be made only with the previous approval of the Government; and any other amendment of minor importance shall be communicated through proper channel for transmission to the Government for information;
- (g) the previous permission of the Government shall be taken before the Service Association seeks affiliation with any other Union, Service Association, or Federation;
- (h) the Service Association shall not start or publish any periodical magazine or bulletin without the previous approval of the Government;
- (i) the Service Association shall cease to publish any periodical, magazine or bulletin, if directed by the Government to do so on the ground that the publication thereof is prejudicial to the interests of the Central Government, the Government of any State or any Government authority or to good relations between Government servants and the Government or any Government authority;
- (j) the Service Association shall not do any act or assist in the doing of any act which, if done by a Government servant, would contravene any of the provisions of rules 5, 6, 8, 9, 13 and 17 of the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1955;
- (k) the Service Association shall not address any communication to a foreign authority except through the Government which shall have the right to withhold it; and
- (l) communications addressed by the Service Association or by any office-bearer on its behalf to the Government or a Government authority shall not contain any disrespectful or improper language.

6. Right of recognised Service Associations.—A Federation or a Confederation of Service Association shall affiliate only recognised Service Associations; and if the recognition accorded to any of the Service Associations affiliated to a Federation or a Confederation of Service Associations is withdrawn, the Federation or Confederation of Service Associations shall forthwith dis-affiliate such Service Association.

7. Withdrawal of recognition.—If in the opinion of Government, a Service Association recognised under these rules has failed to comply with the conditions set out in rule 4, rule 5 or rule 6, the Government may withdraw the recognition accorded to such Association.

8. Relaxation.—The Government may dispense with or relax the requirements of any of these rules to such extent and subject to such conditions as it may deem fit in regard to any Service Association or class of Service Associations.

9. Removal of doubts.—If any question arises as to the interpretation of any of the provisions of these rules, it shall be referred to the Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

[No. 24/23/57-Ests. B.].

S.O. 545.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following further amendments in the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1955, namely:—

In the said rules—

1. in sub-rule (2) of rule 1, after the first proviso, the following proviso and Explanation shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided further that rules 3A, 4A, 4B, 9, Explanation to sub-rule (2) of rule 10, rule 11, sub-rule (2) of rule 12, rule 13, sub-rule (1), (2) and (3) of rule 15, rule 16, 17 and 18 shall not apply to any Government servant drawing a pay of Rs. 500 or less per mensem and holding a non-gazetted post in any of the following establishments, other than railway establishments, owned or managed by the Government, namely:—

- (i) ports, docks, wharves or jetties;
- (ii) defence installations except training establishments;
- (iii) public works establishments, in so far as they relate to work-charged staff;
- (iv) irrigation and electric power establishments;
- (v) mines as defined in clause (j) of section 2 of the Mines Act, 1952 (35 of 1952);
- (vi) factories as defined in clause (m) of section 2 of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948); and
- (vii) field units of the Central Tractor Organisation employing workmen governed by labour laws.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this proviso, ‘establishment’ does not include any office mainly concerned with administrative, managerial, supervisory, security or welfare functions.”;

2. In rule 6, the word “or” occurring at the end of clause (i) shall be omitted and the following proviso shall be added to that clause, namely:—

“Provided that in the case of any Government servant included in any category of Government servants specified in the second proviso to sub-rule (2) of rule 1, nothing contained in this clause shall apply to bonafide expression of views by him as an office-bearer of a trade union of such Government servants for the purpose of safeguarding the service conditions of such Government servants or for securing an improvement therein; or”

[No. 24/23/57-Ests.(B).].
